Forward

This is the fifth Annual Report that we have delivered to the Tsawwassen Membership, and the third as a self-governing First Nation. This document reports on how we fared over the past year, and is intended to provide you, our Members, with the information you need to evaluate how well Tsawwassen Government has done in meeting the goals set out in the 2011-2012 Service Plan. It describes who we are, as Tsawwassen Government, what programs and services we delivered over the past year to Tsawwassen Members, and reports on the outcomes of what we intended to accomplish over the past year. It also sets out what our key public institutions – the Tsawwassen Legislature and the Executive Council – have achieved over the past year.

This is but one tool we use to ensure that we are both transparent and accountable, and while we feel that these reports are effective in providing Members with important information, we are always open to changing our approach to better meet the Membership's needs. As always, we welcome your feedback on what you find helpful or effective in our reporting to you!

We are committed to improving our Annual Reports as we continue on our journey to self-governance, and we are learning as we go.

Vision Statement

In its Strategic Plan for 2008-2013, Tsawwassen First Nation put forward the following Vision Statement. The year 2020 is the target date to achieve this vision statement:

Tsawwassen First Nation will be an ideal location to raise a family and a working model of an environmentally sustainable, self-sufficient, and culturally proud First Nations community. Tsawwassen First Nation Government will, at all times, be oriented towards servicing our Membership, and will exercise the self-government powers of the TFN Treaty.

Message from Executive Council

We thank you for the opportunity to work for you over these past three years. We couldn't be more proud of Tsawwassen First Nation!

Thank you for taking the time to read this Annual Report and to review how we have performed at meeting the objectives we set out at the start of the 2011-2012 year. We view this report as one of the several important ways that we can stay in touch with you, and explain how our decisions can translate into actions on the ground.

The 2011-2012 year was the third year into the Treaty, and saw continued progress on a number of fronts. Our new governance institutions, particularly the Legislature, took a big step in terms of growing into its role. We had terrific debate and strong representation of perspectives at that table. The Legislature will continue to evolve over time as we grow, including increasing cultural aspects of the sessions, but we feel very fortunate to be able to participate in informed community dialogue that will benefit our Nation. We have been extremely encouraged not only by the participation of all of our Legislators, but also by the number of TFN Members who have come to observe and stay current on issues of key importance to them. The issues we engage in, and the debates surrounding them, help us to do our jobs by orienting us towards what our community feels is important.

The strength of the Advisory Council has also become evident; over the past year, we have had terrific participation in that body, and several strong recommendations and advice provided to Executive Council.

Another important step this fiscal year was a preliminary agreement on rents and Member benefits with Ivanhoe Cambridge and Property Development Group, our two partners in the development of a major commercial district on Tsawwassen Lands. Of course, many steps remain before this project is a certainty. Our capacity will undoubtedly be tested as we work through regulatory and construction approvals both within our Lands Department and with other jurisdictions. But the confidence in this project that you gave us in January 2012, with a 97% vote on a term and area extension, was a key piece in moving this project to completion and getting it off the ground!

We've also supported new developments in the residential area of our neighbourhood, and are excited about the plans and agreements our TFSI holders are making with development groups. Our government is working hard to help make those developments a reality, while ensuring that we, Tsawwassen First Nation, do not take on unforeseen risks or costs.

We recognize that our delivery of social services has fallen short of our plans. We have big plans to reform some services and deliver you a more integrated model that can support Members seamlessly across a range of programs. However, we finished this year with some unanticipated turnover on the social services side, and this has created a bit of uncertainty in respect of moving forward with our plans. We are looking to focus on several areas, including community safety, social housing, education, and social assistance, over the coming year. To help us stabilize our organization and ensure we are able to accomplish our goals,

Executive Council directed an Organizational Efficiency Review, which we conducted this past year. It recommended several changes, including to management structures that will help to address staffing issues and other shortfalls in this department. We are moving forward with the implementation of this review in the 2012-2013 year and expect significant to see significant movement in this program area.

We want to thank you for your ongoing participation in our governance structures, and your hard work at creating the type of community we want. The Treaty is just a toolkit; we're in the midst of the hard work now, building the future we all look forward to.

Content of the Report

The Annual Report is broken out into four different sections – a Report from our governing institutions (Legislature, Executive Council, Chief, Advisory Council, and other Committees); a Report on Risk Management; a Service Plan Report; and a Financial Report.

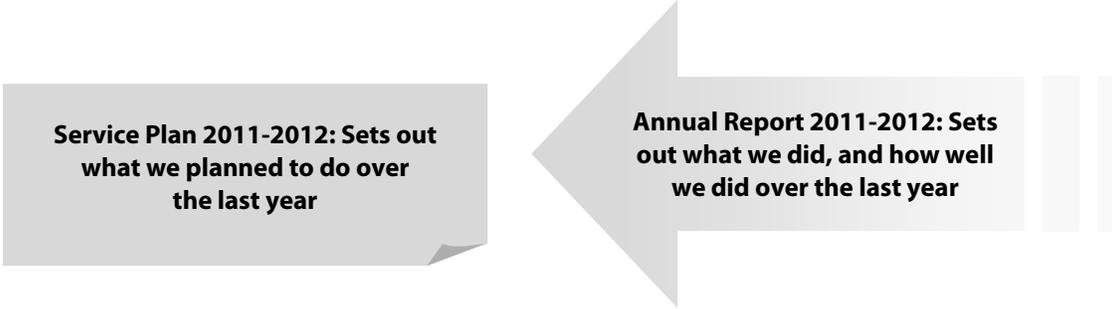

Relationship to Service Plan

One key purpose of this report is to provide Tsawwassen Members with an evaluation of the 2011-2012 Service Plan, which guided the actions of the Tsawwassen Government over the past year.

Departments constructed their annual budget based on the estimated cost of delivering on both the specific objectives they had set out in the Service Plan, and the delivery of existing programs and services.

The intent of this reporting structure is to improve the accountability to the Membership, and the current structure to provide accountability is by reporting on the outcomes of specific strategies that have been outlined in the Service Plan.

Service Plan 2011-2012: Sets out what we planned to do over the last year

Annual Report 2011-2012: Sets out what we did, and how well we did over the last year

Governing Institutions Report

The Tsawwassen Legislature, Executive Council, Chief, and Judicial Council are all named in the Tsawwassen Constitution. The activities of each of these bodies are outlined below. In addition, Tsawwassen Legislation or regulation requires the establishment of various other bodies and committees. Their activities are also briefly described.

Tsawwassen Legislature Report

The Tsawwassen Legislature is the highest body of Tsawwassen Government. It consists of 12 Tsawwassen Members, elected at a general election, and the Chief, elected separately, for a total of 13 Members. The duties of the Legislature are to discuss and make laws, which form the fundamental organizing principles and expressions of Tsawwassen Government. As part of that function, they discuss and pass an annual budget, which is a key part of the accountability structure of Tsawwassen Government.

The first formal Tsawwassen Legislature was elected in a general election held on September 17th, 2009. The Members of the first elected Tsawwassen Legislature are: Tony Jacobs, Louise Ahlm, Nikki Jacobs, Andrea Jacobs, Marvin Joe, Kim Baird (as Chief, who was elected separately), Bryce Williams, Laura Cassidy, Kathy Genge, Andrew Bak, Sheila Williams, Loretta Williams, and Ken Baird. The Legislature is currently in the second year of a three-year term. 2011-12 marks the second year of the term!

Chief

As well as chairing meetings of Executive Council, and participating on the Tsawwassen Legislature, the Chief provides ongoing strategic direction respecting day-to-day matters of Tsawwassen Government, and works closely with the Chief Administrative Officer to manage the affairs of TFN. In addition to those responsibilities, the Chief currently sits as a Board Member on the Tsawwassen First Nation Economic Development Corporation. She also occupies TFN's seat at the table of the Metro Vancouver Board of Directors, and a seat on Translink's Mayor's Council. The Chief is regularly asked to speak at events and conferences that ensures that TFN's profile in the region and abroad is enhanced and respected. Over the past year, the Chief has spoken at the Vancouver Board of Trade, the Crown-First Nations Gathering in October 2011, the United Nations Permanent Forum on Indigenous Issues, and the World Indigenous Housing Conference. The Chief has also been invited to be part of Boards and committees in addition to her role with Tsawwassen First Nation. Each of these roles provides the Chief to influence public policy and decision-making to assist TFN in achieving its objectives.

The Chief is regularly asked to speak at events and conferences that ensures that TFN's profile in the region and abroad is enhanced and respected.

Judicial Council

The Judicial Council is responsible for many matters under Tsawwassen Law. Primary functions include hearing challenges to the validity of Tsawwassen Laws, resolving disputes between Members and elected officials, making recommendations to courts on sentencing of Members, investigating financial irregularities, and other duties assigned to it. The Judicial Council is ready to conduct hearings and act on matters arising. Despite a quiet year, the existence of the Council serves a very important function – adjudication and dispute resolution within the Tsawwassen process.

The Chair, Douglas Lambert, provided the Executive Council with the Judicial Council 2011 Annual Report.

As their term ended, new appointments were approved by Executive Council:

- » Appointment of Paul Fraser QC to position of Chair
- » Appointment of Anja Brown to Vice-Chair

- » Re-appointment of Accounting Member Leif Nordahl

Oaths were taken by members of the Judicial Council at the Treaty Day. Douglas Lambert, who was the guest speaker at Treaty Day, announced that his term with TFN was over.

Advisory Council

The Advisory Council is a body established under the Tsawwassen Constitution. It is a mechanism to ensure that proposed laws, regulations, and other actions are considered by Membership in an open forum prior to being passed or presented to the Executive Council for approval.

The Advisory Council is open to all Members wishing to attend, and meets every two weeks during the fall, winter, spring, and (schedule permitting) the summer

Advisory Council members are Merle Williams, Ruth Adams, Victoria Williams, Charlene Jacobs, John Morgan, and Nic Gurniak elected to the Advisory Council.

The Advisory Council met 18 times during the fiscal year to discuss a wide range of topics and had the opportunity to provide direct input into all major policy and operational initiatives planned by Tsawwassen Government. They also reviewed all Acts and Regulations before they went forward to the Legislature or Executive Council for their approval, including the 2012-2013 budget. They also provided input into a number of major initiatives, including Cemetery Planning, Sustainability Planning, Public Realm Design, Police Services, Education Visioning and Reform, as well as many legislative items that went to the Legislature. Other Committees and Authorities

Tsawwassen Laws, regulations, and policy establish a number of other bodies that are not formally established in the Tsawwassen Constitution. These include the following:

Consultation Committee:

A group of non-members established by policy of the Executive Council. It is made up of leaseholders representing the major leasehold interests on Tsawwassen Lands. They are consulted on issues that significantly and directly impact their interests, including various regulatory structures and TFN's economic development initiatives. The Consultation Committee held 4 meetings – on a quarterly basis – in the reporting period. They discussed issues including an initiative with CMHC to seek mortgage insurance, the slope stability status of Tsawwassen Bluffs, property taxes, heritage sites, insurance requirements for Stahaken properties, TFN's economic development strategy, secondary suite permissions on Tsawwassen Beach, regulations concerning structure height on Tsawwassen Lands, the Integrated Stormwater Management Plan, and the Neighbourhood Concept Plan.

Property Tax Authority:

A body required in the Tsawwassen First Nation Property Taxation Act, the Authority is made up of members of Executive Council and non-member ratepayers, and is responsible for approving the tax rates and expenditures in respect of residential property taxation in every tax year. It is also responsible for approving residential exemptions and grants. In 2010, the Authority approved the rate of residential property tax, the residential property tax budget, and specific exemptions for non-profit entities operating on Tsawwassen Lands.

Standing Committee on Language and Culture:

Established by the Tsawwassen Legislature on the recommendation of the Chief, the Standing Committee is responsible for working with Tsawwassen Members to develop an awareness and understanding of culture and heritage, developing and recommending policies to protect and promote Tsawwassen culture, and other important duties. The Committee was quite active in this fiscal year, providing advice on several files and crafting a Strategic Plan to guide its activities.

Enrollment Committee:

Established under the Final Agreement and continuing under the Membership Act, the Enrollment Committee is responsible for applying the eligibility criteria, based on the Act, for membership in Tsawwassen First Nation. The Enrollment Committee is established and continues to actively managing the growing and vibrant population of Tsawwassen First Nation.

- » Seven committee meetings
- » Policy and procedure review meetings
- » Approval of 8 new TFN members
- » By Order of the Executive Council increased committee to 5
- » Participated in several community events and votes

Traditional Territory Boundary Commission:

Established under an Act of the same name, the Commission is responsible for advising and assisting in the management of overlap and related issues arising from the Tsawwassen Final Agreement. Though many of the overlap issues have been resolved in relation to the Final Agreement, the Commission continues to be an important resource on these critical and sensitive matters.

Report on Risk Management

As a self-governing First Nation, Tsawwassen must manage its own risks in conjunction with the actions it takes under its own jurisdiction. Though the Crown remains responsible for decisions and actions taken under its watch, Tsawwassen must move forward with a strong risk management framework to ensure it continues to manage appropriately. This section sets out areas of risk and steps Tsawwassen took to address these, as identified in the 2011-2012 Service Plan.

How We Managed Risk in 2011-2012

Strategic Risk

In order to minimize Strategic Risk, Tsawwassen took steps to ensure that appropriate due diligence is undertaken in advance of the making of decisions – especially decisions involving the land development. Strong legal and research analysis on major decisions is a general aspect of this category of risk management. Specifically, TFN developed a Risk Management Framework to evaluate Industrial Land Development proposals. This Framework was presented to the Legislature during the Fall Session, and was built with support from TEDC, and Partnerships BC, a BC Crown Corporation that specializes in this type of work. Executive Council also initiated work to explore TFN’s ability to limit liability risks to Tsawwassen that could arise from activities on Tsawwassen Lands.

Investment and Borrowing Risk

Over the past year the Tsawwassen Government managed its long-term Investment Risk in partnership with Greystone Financial Management, and within an established risk profile. Tsawwassen continued over the past year to identify low-cost borrowing alternatives, including participation in the First Nations Finance Authority (FNFA) borrowing pool – a federal institution established to provide a low-cost financing option for municipal-type infrastructure. Over the past year, staff worked with the FNFA, and the governments of Canada and BC to resolve outstanding issues to permit TFN participation in the pool.

Legislative and Regulatory Risk

Tsawwassen Government manages this risk generally by ensuring that decisions – whether minor or major – are subject to a robust review process involving legal analysis where necessary to ensure compliance with applicable laws and regulations. In addition to the routine risk management, staff initiated a compliance review project in the 2010-2011 fiscal year, which will be completed in the next fiscal year. Once implemented, it will test for compliance with current laws and regulations. Phase 1 of this project, undertaken in 2010-2011, saw the compilation of a consolidated list of all of Tsawwassen's statutory requirements. This will facilitate the next phase of the project, where staff will actively test for compliance.

Operational Risk

This refers to the risk of loss from inadequate or failed internal processes, people or systems, or from external factors. This risk is managed, by and large, through institutionalized processes, including monthly reporting, an active Finance and Audit Committee, and the on-going development of a comprehensive human resources plan. To that end, Executive Council and the CAO undertook a review, and made amendments to the HR Policy, and initiated plans to create an HR function and hiring process. TFN also created, and are currently reviewing, Document Management Policies and Procedures to ensure that records produced or in the possession of the Tsawwassen Government are accurately tracked, managed, and either disposed of or archived as per policy. Staff also prepared a draft Financial Management Model, identifying projected costs and revenues over the next 10 years to facilitate TFN's operational planning. The Membership were consulted during the development of the draft at meetings held in Tsawwassen, Vernon, and Bellingham.

Reputation Risk

As part of TFN's general reputation risk management strategy, staff work hard to manage both internal and external risks. External risks are managed by striving for a high-degree of transparency, ensuring that all laws and regulations are posted online, and that our Conflict of Interest Act (Tsawwassen) is adhered to. Internal risks are managed through extensive communication and consultation with the Membership. In addition to these institutionalized strategies, Executive Council initiated the development of a Communications Strategy to ensure that TFN's external messaging is consistent, and to ensure that TFN is well positioned to respond in the media to inaccurate news reports, which if left unchecked, could harm TFN's strong reputation. Additionally, as noted above, Chief Baird spoke regularly to various audiences, including the Vancouver Board of Trade, the Ministry of Aboriginal Relations and Reconciliation, the BC Treaty Commission, the Native Nations Institute from the University of Arizona.

Service Plan Report

The Service Plan Report communicates the actions of each department in the Tsawwassen Administration. It is comprised of individual departmental reports, which compile data and information relating to the objectives that TFN set out in the 2011-2012 Service Plan. This information is intended to provide Membership with specific information respecting each department's progress towards those objectives.

TFN's departments serve a variety of client bases. All departments are responsible for service delivery to Tsawwassen Members. The Lands Department and governance-related departments are also concerned with the delivery of services to leaseholders living on Tsawwassen Lands. Some other departments are also responsible for the provision of social-type services to non-Tsawwassen Members, usually other aboriginal people, as defined in TFN's Fiscal Financing Agreement.

Key terms used in the Report

In order to provide comparability between the Service Plans and the Annual Reports, similar terms are used. The following terms and definitions were provided in the 2011-2012 Service Plan, and are also used throughout:

Objectives: Each Objective identifies what TFN is trying to achieve through its programs in the next year. They identify the purpose and what TFN government is seeking to accomplish.

Strategies: Given the time, money and people available over the year, the Strategies identify the most effective ways for a Department to make progress toward its Objectives. They identify how TFN will meet the Objective.

Outcomes: Provides an update on the outcome of the strategy, and identifies whether performance targets were achieved where one had been identified in the Service Plan.

Financial Report

TFN Audit Information for the Year Ended March 31, 2012

Operational Budgets

Each year the Tsawwassen Legislature provides each of the individual departments of the Government with the authority to spend resources on approved programs and services. It is important that these resources are well managed, and that the delivery of programs and services does not exceed the approved expenditure amounts. Over the 2011-2012 fiscal year, Tsawwassen staff were successful in managing the delivery of programs and services within their approved budgets.

Capital Budgets

There were also a number of significant capital projects that were under construction over the 2011-2012 fiscal year, which added to our capital asset base and provided much needed infrastructure. Each of these projects proceeded on schedule, and within budget. The projects include the Industrial Lands Infrastructure project, which included the construction of roads and a sewer line project to connect us to a major Corporation of Delta sewer main. This project was completed in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2012.

Note: The tables on the following pages show the consolidated statement of financial activity and the consolidated schedule of capital assets, both of which are taken from the 2011-2012 audit. Taken together, these tables show a complete picture of Tsawwassen operational expenditures, activities relating to Tsawwassen's capital asset base, and activity relating to various Treaty Funds. Full copies of the audit are available upon request.

Independent Auditor's Report

To the Executive Council of the Tsawwassen Government

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of Tsawwassen Government, which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as at March 31, 2012, and the consolidated statements of operations and accumulated surplus, changes in net financial assets and cash flows for the year then ended, and the notes to the consolidated financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with Canadian public sector accounting standards, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian public sector accounting standards. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Tsawwassen Government as at March 31, 2012, and the results of its operations, changes in its net financial assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian public sector accounting standards.
